“The raw condition of the walls, ceiling and floor makes the space work together with the paintings”

- CHARLES MUNKA -

French-born Charles Munka harnesses his own nomadic experiences of life in Europe and Asia in his large-scale street art-meets-manga-meets-hieroglyphic works. He creates these masterful and symbolic abstract paintings in a Mong Kok corner apartment-turned-studio overlooking bustling Shanghai Street.

生於法國的Charles Munka以在歐洲和亞洲的流浪經驗，創出大型藝術品，混合街頭藝術、日本連環漫畫冊和象形文字。他在旺角一個由住所改為工作室的單位創出家徽式的抽象畫作，效果震撼出色，還可從單位俯瞰繁華的上海街。
